I state that on December 28, 2015 while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the Eastern District of Virginia

On Dec 28, 2015 at approximately 1133 hours, an incident command was established on the Pentagon Reservation at the Pentagon Metro Platform in anticipation of the Indian House's demonstration. F. Officer Malik (un. #48885) was an arrest team member for the incident. A group of approximately 44 individuals gathered on Army Navy Drive and began to walk toward the Metro Entrance facility. The first 37 protesters were directed and went into the Designated Protest Area near the Pentagon Metro Entrance facility. Seven of the protesters refused to enter the designated protest area and remained on the sidewalk outside of the designated protest area. M. SPICER was one of the protesters that failed to enter the protest area as directed. After they were given 3 warnings by Sgt. McKillen, one minute apart, SPICER was arrested for failure to comply with a lawful order.
